

COM IN MON

GOING FURTHER

Further information for organisations

Whaiwhai te kete mātauranga

Fill the basket of knowledge

Engaging with the InCommon quiz may inspire an interest to further develop cultural competency within your organisation. The following information offers some ideas to pursue this path. These suggestions are by no means exhaustive, they are a starting point.

Te Tiriti o Waitangi training and resources

Educational resources and workshops aimed at building relationships between tangata tiriti – people of the Treaty (non-Māori), and tangata whenua – people of the land (Māori)

nwo.org.nz

Network Waitangi Ōtautahi offer a number of downloadable resources and organised learning opportunities.

treatypeople.org

Tangata Tiriti – Treaty People are a popular provider of inhouse workshops for organisations. Their content can be tailored to meet your needs.

Diversity, inclusion and allyship training and resources

diversityworks.nz

For online training in unconscious bias, cultural intelligence, and improving diversity and inclusion in the workplace have a look at Diversity Works NZ.

groundwork.org.nz

Check out the resources tab at groundwork.org.nz for great information on what it means to be an ally.

Developing Pacific community cultural knowledge

mpp.govt.nz

For an introduction to the diverse cultural practices and protocols of different Pacific Island communities, visit the Ministry for Pacific Peoples and search Yavu for downloadable resources.

ara.ac.nz

Based in Ōtautahi Christchurch and interested in face to face training? Try out the Pacific cultural competency workshops offered by Ara.

ako.ac.nz

For a free online training resource, refer to the Pacific Cultural Centredness Pathway hosted at ako.ac.nz

leva.co.nz

Visit Le Va for training and education initiatives to support workforces to be responsive to the needs of Pasifika people, check out their national Pasifika cultural competency training programme “Engaging Pasifika”.

Visit our website:

incommon.org.nz

Follow us on social media:

 @incommonnz

 in\_common\_nz

continued overleaf

continued

Developing multicultural knowledge

ethniccommunities.govt.nz

To increase cultural understanding and improve communication across different backgrounds, the Ministry for Ethnic Communities provides an Intercultural Capability E-Learning programme.

mherc.arlo.co

To build knowledge about working together in a multicultural environment, visit the Mental Health and Resource Centre who offer a live online webinar exploring this topic.

migrantnews.nz

To access New Zealand's only multicultural newspaper for a diversity of ethnic voices, visit Migrant News.

Examining Pākehā culture

mherc.arlo.co

For an online or face to face workshop aimed at exploring cultural worldviews have a look at the Mental Health and Resource Centre.

checkyourpakehaprivilege.co.nz

Visit Check your Pākehā Privilege, a space to share resources that help Pākehā understand how colonisation impacts Aotearoa, reflect on Pākehā privilege, and uphold responsibilities to Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

Visit our website:

incommon.org.nz

Follow us on social media:

 @incommonnz

 in\_common\_nz